

A NIGHT OF MEDICAL MUSIC NOTES FOR KIDS

VANCOUVER, BC – On Thursday, May 13, a number of entertaining bands will take the stage at The Yale in order to raise funds for The Children’s Wish Foundation of BC & Yukon.

The Children’s Wish Foundation of Canada (CWF) has been granting wishes for 26 years to Canadian children from the ages of 3 through 18 who are suffering from high risk, life-threatening illnesses. The CWF (www.childrenswish.ca) is the largest wish granting organization in Canada with offices in every province. It is a non-profit organization that does not rely on government grants, subsidies or lotteries. These children are frightened by the unknown and a “wish” can help them and their families get through the most challenging times.

Doc’s Blues has supported the CWF since its inception in 1989 when the organization granted support to a patient of Dr. Mike Carter. Over the years, this fundraiser and Doc’s Rock has taken place at popular venues throughout Vancouver including the Commodore Ballroom, Town Pump and Richards on Richards. Doc’s Blues presented at The Yale is the collaboration between Vancouver musician Rob Montgomery and Dr. Carter. “As a member of Vancouver’s music community, I feel good about giving to kids that really need our help,” states Montgomery. The evening includes performances by popular bands Incognito, Blues Piggies and Soul Purpose.

Tickets to Doc’s Blues Benefit are $10 in advance or at the door, with all proceeds going to the CWF. Doors open at 7pm. Show begins at 8pm. Be sure to show your support by coming out for a fun and enjoyable night of music! For more information on this and other upcoming Yale events, call 604-681-9253 or visit www.theyale.ca. The Yale is conveniently located at 1300 Granville Street in downtown Vancouver.
