FORGET ME NOT ALL-STAR MUSICAL REVUE

VANCOUVER, BC – On Wednesday, November 10, Marianne Schmidt in partnership with The Yale and members of Vancouver’s music community present the 4th annual Forget Me Not All-Star Musical Revue in order to raise funds and awareness on behalf of the Alzheimer Society of B.C. (ASBC) and in honor of Marianne’s mother.

The ASBC (www.alzheimerbc.org) provides support and help to more than 63,500 people in B.C. who are currently impacted by Alzheimer’s disease or a related dementia, and the more than 14,000 who will develop dementia in B.C. each year. Currently, one in four Canadians has someone with Alzheimer’s disease in their family. Research indicates that by this year, one person every 30 minutes will be diagnosed with Alzheimer’s related disease.

Forget Me Not All-Star Musical Revue will include stellar performances by Chilliwack, Aaron Pritchett, Shaun Verreault, One More Girl, Lysin’ Bastards, Texas Flood, Higgins, Gary Comeau, Stonebolt, Brent Lee, Loretta and the 4 Mingos, Brickhouse, Terminal Station, and many more featured entertainers!

Join us for a night of great music, silent auction and 50/50 draw. Tickets to the Forget Me Not All-Star Musical Revue are $30 in advance or $40 at the door. Proceeds will go to the Alzheimer Society of B.C. Doors open at 6pm. Show begins at 7pm. For more information on this fundraiser event, contact The Yale at 604-681-9253 or visit www.theyale.ca.
