GROOVE MASTER COMES TO THE YALE!

VANCOUVER, BC – Singer, songwriter and sax player, Terry Hanck brings his mix of New Orleans classic R&B style with Chicago electric blues to The Yale on Friday and Saturday, May 4 and 5. Music lovers can experience this first class show that has astounded audiences across Canada, the United States and Europe.

Born in Chicago, Hanck (www.terryhanck.net) was heavily influenced by blues, soul and jazz of the 1950's and early 60's. He toured with Elvin Bishop during the 1970's and 80's, eventually branding and performing his very own signature style combination of blues and soul.

Hanck has shared the stage with music icons such as Big Joe Turner, Bonnie Raitt, Steve Miller, Albert Collins, Robert Cray and The Neville Brothers. His vast repertoire of classic and original tunes, combined with a high-energy performance has created a following among blues, soul and jazz fans everywhere.

His 2005 CD release NIGHT TRAIN with TVR Records showcases his hard blowing sax, gusty vocals and incredible musical range. Joining Hanck onstage will be top notch musicians Johnny Cat on guitar, Michael "Fly" Brooks on bass, and Butch Cousins on drums.

Tickets to see Terry Hanck are $15 at the door. Doors open at 8pm. Showtime begins at 9pm. For more information on this and other upcoming Yale events, call 604-681-9253 or visit www.theyale.ca. The Yale is conveniently located at 1300 Granville Street in downtown Vancouver.

"A sizzling collection of R&B and blues tunes marked by vocals and sax playing that are well-phrased, tuneful, and soulful...an irresistible ride." Tom Hyslop, Blues Revue
